By- Law in relation to Nominations for Election to the Board

In the event that at the annual election of directors under the triennial rule, in accordance with Rule 47(b) of the Constitution of the Club, there is a vacant position for a term of office, of less than three years, then candidates may either nominate for that position or they may nominate for any of the vacant positions for terms of office of three years, but they can not nominate for both a position that has a term of office of less than three years and also for one of the positions for terms of office of three years.
